

COME OUT IN SUPPORT OF BE WISE RANCH

January 2, 2012

UPDATE: IMPORTANT EYE GNAT SITUATION!

Dear Organic Supporter,

On November 9, 2011, the San Diego County Board of Supervisors held a hearing concerning the eye gnat issue here in the San Pasqual Valley of Escondido. It was concluded that a group would be formed to propose a plan and come up with valid measures to help reduce and control the eye gnat problem. The group was formed, met on several occasions and after much debate the group is ready to make the proposal public.

On February 2, 2012 there will be an informational meeting held at L.R. Green Elementary School located at 3115 Las Palmas Ave. Escondido Ca 92025

Time: 6 to 7 PM

Do you want to know what is being proposed?

- The new ordinance that deals specifically with the organic farms & eye gnats will be explained.
- Who will conduct this meeting? Jack Miller - Director of Environmental Health & Rod Lorang - Senior Attorney for San Diego County.
- Your attendance in support of Be Wise Ranch & Organic farming, will confirm to the County Board of Supervisors that we are serious about keeping Be Wise Ranch in business.
- Bill Brammer, the organic farmer of Be Wise Ranch will be at this very important meeting.
- To let us know that we can expect your support, please email Sandra@bewiseranch
- Thank you and we hope to see you at the meeting.
